Description and how to apply

Cardinal Chambers is a small, friendly set based in Ipswich specialising in all aspects of Family Law. We are the only specialist Family Law set covering work across East Anglia. Applicants should therefore have an enthusiasm for and show some experience in all areas of Family Law. The work available to any successful applicant will cover Public Law, Private Law and Financial matters.

Chambers is committed to a fair and transparent recruitment process and aims to be fully compliant with the Equality and Diversity Code for the Bar.

We are looking to offer one or two 6 month placements with a view to offering tenancy.

Applications should be by email to sallyfreeman@cardinalchambers.com including a current CV and a short covering letter including a bullet point summary of the type of work undertaken in pupillage. Applicants should also include confidential references from each of their pupil supervisors and up to 2 additional references, for example from solicitors.

Interviews will be held in late November/early December with a view to any successful candidate starting as soon as practicable.

Chambers is committed to a fair and transparent recruitment process and aims to be fully compliant with the Equality and Diversity Code for the Bar.
