WHAT ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

We are looking for candidates who have the potential to become outstanding barristers. We are keen to recruit bright, independently minded people who are articulate, confident and perceptive. You should be keen to learn, can get on with people, and be able to demonstrate common sense and good judgment. We value and encourage creative and original thinking.

THE PROBATIONARY TENNANCY

Your probationary tenancy will be for six months. The starting date is to be agreed between the parties. You will have a case load of your own and will be going to court on your own cases. We place great worth on training a probationary tenant how to learn the principles of managing a practice and learning how to interact with clerks and solicitors and to manage both lay and professional client expectations. We will train you to seek out detail and be precise in how you problem solve never forgetting the need for creativity within the process of developing commercial solutions that are real as well as realistic.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applications will be treated in confidence. Please submit a two page CV with a one page covering letter to law@whitstonechambers.com. Please provide your mobile phone number in your covering letter. Please arrange for us to be provided with two references, at least one of which should be from your pupil supervisor.

We are committed to equal opportunities and diversity and aim to select candidates solely on merit irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation. If you require reasonable adjustments, please contact Chambers so that we can ensure that those are put in place.

We wish you the best of luck with your application.
