Description and how to apply

Thomas More Chambers is a leading common law set looking for an outstanding candidate to join as a probationary tenant (formerly 'third six pupillage') who has the potential to support the continuing success of Chambers. Applications are invited from pupils who have completed or about to complete pupillage.

Successful applicants will be able to develop a busy mixed common law practice (including work in the civil, family and criminal fields). Applicants who wish to specialise in criminal work are especially welcome to apply.

You should be keen to learn, be able to get on with people at all levels, and be able to demonstrate original thinking, common sense, and good judgement. You should possess a minimum of a 2.1 degree, not necessarily in law.

Please send a full CV, covering letter including a bullet point summary of the type of work you have undertaken in pupillage and confidential references from each of your pupil supervisors and up to two further references if the applicant so wishes (for example, from solicitors). If a candidate cannot provide references from each of their pupil supervisors, they should explain why that is so. Full applications should be addressed to the Head of Pupillage and sent to Neil Garrett at NGarrett@thomasmore.co.uk by no later than Friday, 29 November 2024.

Your covering letter should explain why you think Thomas More Chambers would be a good fit for you.

Chambers operates a fair and transparent recruitment policy and is committed to the Equality & Diversity Code for the Bar.
